

Offering help scenarios

How can you help? What would you say or do?

A new child has joined the school and is put in your class. It is their first day and they don't know anybody.

How can you help? What would you say or do?

During playtime you notice one of your classmates sitting by themselves. They look sad.

How can you help? What would you say or do?

A child who you don't know has fallen over in the playground and hurt themselves.

How can you help? What would you say or do?

You notice someone being teased by some older children at playtime and getting upset.

How can you help? What would you say or do?

One of your friends has forgotten to bring a snack on the school trip.