

Reading Body Language

It is often difficult to understand someone's feelings by how they look or act. Using just body language and no words, how can the children show emotions?

Put the class into pairs or small groups and give them an emotion to portray as a still image/freeze frame. Can the rest of the class guess the emotion?

Can the children suggest any others?

Shy	Confused
Excited	Sad
Happy	Nervous
Angry	Jealous

