

Being kind means putting someone else's needs first.

Being kind means thinking of others.

Being kind means always being supportive.

Being kind means keeping secrets.

Being kind means saying 'no' sometimes.

A good friend is always kind to you.

Being kind means not saying things online that you wouldn't say in person.

Being kind is doing something without expecting anything in return.

Being kind is doing something because you want to, not because you have to.

Being kind means accepting people make mistakes.

