

Act out the conversation below. Pay attention to the tone of voice, expressions, and body language used by each of you. Afterwards, rewrite, the conversation as a text, social media post, or direct message. How does the tone and meaning of the conversation change?

- Person 1 "You're so late. I've been standing here forever!"
- Person 2 "It was literally five minutes. Chill out, I'm not normally late."
- Person 1 "I could've frozen to death, or been kidnapped, or both!"
- Person 2 "Stop being so dramatic! I had stuff to do."
- Person 1 "What stuff?"
- Person 2 "None of your business, nosey."
- Person 1 "Charming!"
- Person 2 "Come on, we better go, otherwise I'll be late again!"

Act out the conversation below. Pay attention to the tone of voice, expressions, and body language used by each of you. Afterwards, rewrite, the conversation as a text, social media post, or direct message. How does the tone and meaning of the conversation change?

- Person 1 "You're so late. I've been standing here forever!"
- Person 2 "It was literally five minutes. Chill out, I'm not normally late."
- Person 1 "I could've frozen to death, or been kidnapped, or both!"
- Person 2 "Stop being so dramatic! I had stuff to do."
- Person 1 "What stuff?"
- Person 2 "None of your business, nosey."
- Person 1 "Charming!"
- Person 2 "Come on, we better go, otherwise I'll be late again!"