

What will happen next? How might the conflict be resolved?

Amelia asks Ruby, her friend, if she wants to do something at the weekend but Ruby says she is busy doing family stuff. When Amelia is in town with her Aunty on Saturday, she sees Ruby going into the Cinema with someone else from their class.

What will happen next? How might the conflict be resolved?

At Sofia's school a group of children from another class always get to the play equipment first so her and her friends never get to use it.

What will happen next? How might the conflict be resolved?

Filip's Mum asks him to clear the table after they've eaten while she goes to the shop. When Mum gets back, he hasn't done it as he's been playing on his Xbox.

What will happen next? How might the conflict be resolved?

Sam's younger brother, Luke, moves into Sam's bedroom whilst his own is being decorated. Luke keeps using Sam's stuff without permission.

What will happen next? How might the conflict be resolved?

Jaden and his friend, Luisa, both wanted to read the same book, they had an argument and are now not talking to each other.

What will happen next? How might the conflict be resolved?

Hannah's twin sister is really bossy and always telling her what to do, she always puts her music on, and they have to watch what she wants. Hannah is fed up with it and feels like hitting her.

