

Communication statements for debate

- Face to face communication is more effective than digital communication.
- It's more important to be honest than to be polite.
- Active listening is more powerful than speaking persuasively.
- Using formal language is necessary to sound professional.
- You can understand someone better through their writing than through their talking.
- Silence can be a powerful form of communication.
- You don't need to use the same language to communicate effectively.