

Fill in the blanks in the conversation. Do not use names of anyone in the class or any words that are not appropriate for the classroom:

Person 1 Hey _____, can we talk about what happened during _____?

Person 2 Yeah....I didn't mean to _____

Person 1 It just felt like you were _____ when you said "_____".

Person 2 Oh no! I was actually trying to _____
I didn't realise it came across that way.

Person 1 I get that. Maybe next time we can just _____ before it turns into _____

Person 2 I think _____

Person 1 Well _____. Thanks for _____.

Questions:

- How did your word choices affect the tone of this conversation?
- Is the conversation clear or confusing?
- How can humour be used to lighten a conversation, and when can it go wrong?
- If you wanted to make this conversation more friendly, what would you change?
- How similar or different are the conversations of other classmates?