

Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) Day

It begins with me

Teacher notes

Give out copies of the word bank to support students with writing a poem or rap on the RSE Day theme of 'It Begins With Me.'

Ask the students to base their poem or rap on any aspect related to self esteem, such as celebrating identity and diversity within the class; body positivity; confidence and self-expression or positive relationships.

After drafting the poem/rap, invite the students to select magazine images for the background, which they will then stick onto a large piece of paper or card. The poem can be written or typed out and stuck onto the background. This can form part of a display in the class, celebrating all the different ways the students contribute to the school.
